Attorneys for Plaintiff

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

STEPHANIE KIPPERMAN, on behalf of Plaintiff and all persons similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JOHN McCONE; RICHARD HELMS; JAMES
SCHLESINGER; J. EDWARD DAY; WILLIAM
COTTER; THOMAS KARAMESSINES; GEORGE
BUSH, DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE; JOHN MITCHELL; UNITED STATES OF AMERICA; and an unknown number of unnamed present and former employees of the United States,

Defendants.

NO. C-75-1211 CBR

THIRD AMENDED
COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff alleges:

COUNT ONE

Subject-matter jurisdiction is conferred on this Court by 5 U.S.C. §§ 551 et seq; 28 U.S.C. § 1331; United States Constitution, Amendments 1, 4, 5, 9, and 10; United States
Statutes and Postal Regulations; and by the doctrine of pendent jurisdiction.

The amount in controversy, exclusive of interest and

OGC Has Reviewed

1 costs, exceeds the sum or value of $10,000.00.

2 3.

3 Plaintiff, Stephanie Kipperman, is a citizen of the 4 United States, over the age of twenty-one years. At the time of 5 filing this Complaint, at the time when she first became aware of 6 the acts complained of herein, and during most of the time the 7 acts complained of as to her occurred, Plaintiff resided in the 8 Northern District of California (hereinafter "District").

9 4.

10 A. Plaintiff, and the members of Plaintiff's class, 11 are American citizens who, at times between 1953 and 1973, 12 communicated by first class mail with, and received sealed mail 13 from, persons in foreign countries, including but not limited to, 14 the Soviet Union, and Communist countries in the Far East.

15 B. All such communication was with a reasonable 16 expectation that Defendants named and unnamed would not engage in 17 the acts herein complained of.

18 C. Plaintiff, and the members of Plaintiff's class, 19 have so communicated on numerous occasions, concerning personal 20 and private matters and thoughts, never in any manner so as to 21 arouse any reasonable suspicion or to create any justification 22 for the acts herein complained of.

23 D. The identities of the class members are unknown to 24 Plaintiff, but will be shown by Defendants' records. The number 25 of class members is so large as to make a joinder of each 26 impracticable. As to Plaintiff and each class member, identical 27 issues of law and fact exist as to the liability of each 28 Defendant. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent the 29 interests of the class.

30 5.

31 At all times, each Defendant acted as an agent of 32 Defendant United States of America, with the knowledge, consent

1 and approval of said Defendant, or their actions were ratified
2 by said Defendant.

3 All of the acts herein complained of were, however, 4 unlawful, and were at all times outside the course and scope of 5 the agency and employment of the individual Defendants, or if 6 within the scope of the agency and employment of the individual 7 Defendants, in violation of the United States Constitution, 8 United States statutes, Postal Regulations, and therefore without 9 legal authority.

10 6.

11 Defendant United States is liable for ratifying the 12 acts of individual Defendants, or for being grossly negligent 13 and remaining uninformed of the illegal character of said acts, 14 or for intentionally remaining uninformed of the illegal 15 character of these acts. Such ratification, or grossly negligent 16 or intentional ignorance of Defendants' acts permitted Defendants 17 to carry out the acts complained of.

18 7.

19 Defendants McCone, Helms and Schlesinger were at 20 material times Directors of Central Intelligence and the heads 21 of the United States Central Intelligence Agency who directed or 22 approved or ratified the acts herein complained of.

23 8.

24 Defendant Day was at material times Postmaster General 25 of the United States who directed or approved or ratified the 26 acts herein complained of.

27 9.

28 Defendant Cotter was at material times Chief Postal 29 Inspector of the United States Post Office Department who directed 30 or approved or ratified the acts herein complained of.

31 10.

32 Defendant Karamessines was at material times an employee

1 of the United States Central Intelligence Agency who directed or 2 approved or ratified the acts herein complained of.

3 11.

4 Defendant Mitchell was at material times the Attorney 5 General of the United States who directed or approved or 6 ratified the acts herein complained of.

7 12.

8 Defendant Bush is the Director of Central Intelligence 9 and head of the United States Central Intelligence Agency, is 10 sued for purposes of injunctive relief only and is named herein 11 pursuant to Rule 25(d), F.R. Civ. Pr.

12 13.

13 Defendant United States of America at material times 14 employed the foregoing Defendants, and other persons described 15 hereafter, and directed or approved or ratified the acts herein 16 complained of, or intentionally or with gross negligence remained 17 uninformed of the illegal character of said acts.

18 14.

19 The individual unnamed Defendants, present and former 20 employees of the United States, were and are employees of the 21 United States Central Intelligence Agency, the United States 22 Post Office Department and United States Postal Service, the 23 United States Department of Justice, and other agencies of 24 Defendant United States of America, who actually perpetrated the 25 acts herein complained of, or who joined in the conspiracy here-26 inafter described, or who directed or approved and ratified the 27 acts herein complained of.

28 15.

29 All Defendants herein, and other persons unnamed, 30 conspired with one another or joined an ongoing conspiracy formed 31 at some time in 1952. Said conspiracy continued at least until 32 1973. The object of this conspiracy was to utilize normal mail

1 routing to channel mail to and from certain foreign nations, 2 including but not limited to the Soviet Union and Communist 3 countries in the Far East, to one or more central locations, and 4 at said locations to divert this mail out of its lawful and 5 authorized flow, to pass through the hands of certain unnamed
6 and unknown Defendants and employees of the Central Intelligence 7 Agency and United States Postal Service; said unnamed and unknown 8 employees would examine the face of such mail, sent from or to 9 Plaintiff and class members; said unnamed and unknown agents 10 would copy the exteriors of certain of the envelopes so examined; 11 said unnamed and unknown agents would open, examine, copy and 12 analyze the contents of certain of the envelopes so examined; 13 said unnamed and unknown agents, and other persons unknown to 14 Plaintiff, would maintain files, dossiers, and data banks con-15 taining the names acquired from the activity described above, 16 including the names of Plaintiff and certain class members;
17 Defendants, their agents, and other persons unknown and unnamed, 18 would report information so acquired to other persons and agen-
19 cies of Defendant United States of America, including, but not 20 limited to, the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Furthermore, 21 it was an object of said conspiracy to deliberately and fraudu-22 lently conceal from the public, the Plaintiff and class members, 23 the acts herein complained of. Said fraudulent concealment was 24 successful and continued until a time within the one year 25 preceding the filing of this action.

26 16.

27 In the doing of the aforesaid acts and conduct, and in 28 the doing of the below-described acts and conduct, each named and 29 unnamed Defendant, acted as agent, servant, partner, joing 30 venturer, aider and abettor and co-conspirator of one another.

31 17.

32 In carrying out the described conspiracy, certain overt

1 acts occurred in this District, including but not limited to:

- 2 A. Unknown and unnamed agents of the named 3 and unnamed co-conspirators set up a 4 central location in San Francisco,
5 California, and carried out the acts 6 complained of herein with regard to 7 mail to and from Communist countries
8 of the Far East.
- 9 B. Co-conspirators, both named and unnamed 10 herein, with the consent and approval
11 of all other co-conspirators, utilized
12 certain United States employees, to-wit
13 mail carriers, to pick up Plaintiff's
14 mail to the Soviet Union in this District,
15 and to transport it within this District
16 making possible its later examination, 17 copying or opening. Furthermore, these 18 employees of the United States segregated 19 the mail of Plaintiffs and others, within 20 this District, into that class of mail 21 which was to be examined, copied or opened, 22 thereby making possible and facilitating,
23 said illegal and unauthorized acts. All 24 co-conspirators knew, or should have known, 25 that the activities of said employees of 26 the United States would extend into this 27 District, and that said employees would 28 avail themselves of the roads, police
29 protection, and other benefits provided 30 by the State of California in this 31 District.

32 //

18.

The acts and conduct herein complained of were discovered within the one year preceding the filing of this action, and could not reasonably have been discovered before that time, on account of the unlawful acts and conduct previously described.

19.

All Defendants herein, named and unnamed, and all co-conspirators previously described, knew or should have known that the acts herein complained of were unlawful. Nevertheless, Defendants and their co-conspirators persisted in the unlawful actions with the intent and purpose knowingly to violate and disregard Plaintiff's rights and those of Plaintiff's class, under the Constitution, laws, and regulations of the United States. Said acts were malicious, intentional, and oppressive, and were carried out with the intent to deprive Plaintiff and the class members of their lawful rights. Accordingly, Plaintiff and each class member herein, are entitled to exemplary damages according to proof.

20.

Commencing prior to 1953, and continuing at least until 1973, Defendants, named and unnamed, and the co-conspirators described previously, carried out an unlawful course of conduct in violation of Plaintiff's and the class members' rights under the Constitution, laws and regulations of the United States, which course of conduct constituted an unlawful invasion of privacy. On information and belief, said acts and course of conduct included but werenot limited to, the copying of the exterior of the envelopes of private, sealed, first class mail of Plaintiff, and her class, sent to and from persons in foreign countries, including, but not limited to, the Soviet Union and one or more Communist countries in the Far East. Said acts, as to Plaintiff, were directed at mail sent to and from persons in

1 the Soviet Union.

2 Said acts of Defendants, named and unnamed, and their 3 co-conspirators, were at all times, and in each instance, delib-
4 erate, intentional and knowing violations of the Constitution, law
5 and regulations of the United States.

6 21.

7 On information and belief, said acts included, but were 8 not limited to, the above-described copying of exteriors of enve-9 lopes, and the maintenance of files and dossiers and data banks 10 reflecting the information unlawfully acquired about Plaintiff and 11 her class, and the reporting of such information to others.

12 22.

13 Said acts of Defendants, named and unnamed, and their 14 co-conspirators, constituted an intentional, deliberate, and 15 malicious effort to deprive Plaintiff and the class members of 16 their rights under The United States Constitution, statutes, and 17 regulations and constituted a malicious deprivation of Plaintiffs' 18 rights of free speech, the right to be free from unreasonable 19 searches and seizures, the right not to be deprived of liberty 20 and property without due process of law, the right to be free 21 from invasions of privacy, the right to communicate in private via 22 the mails, and the rights reserved to the people of the United 23 States and not granted to the Federal Government.

24 23.

25 As a result of the acts complained of herein, Plaintiff,
26 and her class, have suffered, shock, anger and mental distress.

27 24.

28 The effects of the acts complained of herein has been,
29 and will continue to be, to chill and impair the rights of 30 Plaintiff, her class, and all United States citizens, to speak, 31 think, and communicate their thoughts in writing to other persons.

32 25.

The acts complained of herein constituted an abuse of

1 discretion by United States agencies, including, but not limited
2 to, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the United States Postal
3 Department, and were in violation of the United States Constitu-
4 tion, and certain United States statutes and regulations, inclu-
5 ding 18 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1703, 39 U.S.C. § 4057, and C.F.R. §§
6 233.2 and 447.91.

7 26.

8 Unless restrained and enjoined, Defendant United States
9 of America, by and through its agencies, is likely to, and will 10 again engage, in the acts complained of herein.

11 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, and class members request relief
12 as prayed for below.

13 COUNT TWO

14 1.

15 Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates herein by referenc
16 each and every allegation contained in Paragraphs 1 through 19, 17 inclusive, of COUNT ONE set forth above.

18 2.

19 Commencing prior to 1953, and continuing until at least 20 1973, Defendants, named and unnamed, and their co-conspirators, 21 violated Plaintiffs' and the class members' rights under the 22 Constitution, laws and regulations of the United States.. On 23 information and belief, said acts included, but were not limited 24 to, the unlawful and indiscriminate opening of private, sealed, 25 and first class mail of Plaintiff, and her class, to and from 26 persons in foreign countries, including but not limited to, the 27 Soviet Union and one or more Communist country in the Far East.
28 Such acts, as to Plaintiff, consisted of the unlawful and indis-29 criminate opening of private, sealed and first class mail of 30 Plaintiff to and from persons in the Soviet Union. Said acts, 31 as to Plaintiff and her class, further included, but were not 32 limited to, the examination and copying of the contents of 1 envelopes so opened, the analysis of these contents, the 2 maintenance of files, dossiers, and data banks reflecting the 3 information unlawfully acquired from such opened envelopes, 4 and the reporting of such information to other Defendants, and 5 co-conspirators, including, but not limited to, the Federal 6 Bureau of Investigation.

7 Said acts of Defendants were at all times, and in each 8 instance, deliberate, intentional, knowing, unlawful violations
9 of the Constitution, laws and regulations of the United States.

10 3.

11 Said acts of Defendants, named and unnamed, and co-
12 conspirators, constituted an intentional, deliberate and malicious 13 effort to deprive Plaintiff and the class members of their rights 14 under the United States Constitution, statutes, and regulations, 15 and constituted a malicious deprivation of their rights of free 16 speech, the right to be free from unreasonable searches and 17 seizures, the right not to be deprived of liberty and property
18 without due process of law, the right to be free from invasions 19 of privacy, the right to communicate in private via the mails, 20 and the rights reserved to the people of the United State and 21 not granted to the Federal Government.

22 4.

23 As a result of the acts complained of herein, Plaintiff
24 and her class, have suffered shock, anger and mental distress.

25 5.

26 The effect of the acts complained of herein has been,
27 and will continue to be, to chill and impair the rights of 28 Plaintiff, her class, and all United States citizens, to speak, 29 think, and communicate their thoughts in writing to other persons.

30 6.

31 The acts complained of herein constituted an abuse of 32 discretion by United States agencies, including, but not limited

1 to, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the United States Postal
2 Department, and were in violation of the United States Constitu-
3 tion, and certain United States statutes and regulations, inclu-
4 ding 18 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1703, 39 U.S.C. § 4057, and C.F.R. §§
5 233.2 and 447.91.

6 26.

7 Unless restrained and enjoined, Defendant United States
8 of America, by and through its agencies, is likely to, and will 9 again engage, in the acts complained of herein.

10 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and class members request relief
11 as prayed for below.

12 COUNT THREE

13 1.

14 Subject-matter jurisdiction is conferred on this court 15 by 5 U.S.C. §§ 551 et seq; 28 U.S.C. §§ 1339 and 1346; The United 16 States Constitution, Amendments 1, 4, 5, 9 and 10; United States 17 Statutes and Regulations; and by the doctrine of pendent juris-18 diction.

19 2.

20 The amount in controversy, exclusive of interest and 21 costs, is less than the sum or value of $10,000.00.

22 3.

23 Plaintiff, and the class members, re-allege and 24 incorporate herein by reference each and every allegation con-25 tained in Paragraphs 3 through 19, inclusive, of COUNT ONE, set 26 forth above.

27 4.

28 Commencing prior to 1953, and continuing at least 29 until 1973, Defendants, named and unnamed, and their co-conspira-30 tors, carried out an unlawful course of conduct in violation of 31 Plaintiffs and the class members' rights under the Constitution, 32 laws, and regulations of the United States, which constituted an -11-

1 unlawful invasion of privacy. On information and belief, such 2 acts and course and conduct, consisted of, but was not limited 3 to, the diversion of first-class mail sent by Plaintiff and her 4 class to and from certain foreign countries, including, but not 5 limited to the Soviet Union and Communist countries in the Far 6 East. Said mail was diverted from its normal and lawful flow, 7 and was subject to unauthorized examination of the exterior of its 8 envelopes, and the delay of such mail for the purpose of carrying 9 out the unlawful examination described. As to Plaintiff, such 10 acts were limited to mail sent to and received from persons in 11 the Soviet Union.

12 5.

13 Said acts were at all times and each instance deliberate, 14 intentional, knowing, unlawful violations of the Constitution, 15 laws and regulations of the United States.

16 6.

17 Said acts of Defendants, named and unnamed, and co-18 conspirators, constituted an intentional, deliberate, and 19 malicious effort to deprive Plaintiff and the class members of 20 their rights under the United States Constitution, statutes, and 21 regulations, and constituted a malicious deprivation of their rights 22 of free speech, the right to be free from unreasonable searches 23 and seizures, the right not to be deprived of liberty and property 24 without due process of law, the right to be free from invasion 25 of privacy, the right to communicate in private via the mails, and 26 the right reserved to the people of the United States and not 27 granted to the Federal Government.

28 7.

29 As a result of the acts complained of herein, 30 Plaintiff and her class have suffered shock, anger, and mental 31 distress.

32 //

1 8.

2 The effect of the acts complained of herein has been,
3 and will continue to be, to chill and impair the rights of 4 Plaintiff, and her class, and all United States citizens, to 5 speak, think, and communicate their thoughts in writing to other 6 persons.

7 9.

8 The acts complained of herein constituted an abuse of 9 discretion by United States agencies, including, but not limited
10 to, the Central Intelligence Agency, and The United States 11 Postal Department, said acts being in violation of the United 12 States Constitution, and certain United States statutes and 13 regulations, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. §§ 1701-14 1703, and C.F.R. §§ 233.2 and 447.91.

15 10.

16 Unless restrained and enjoined, Defendant United States
17 of America, by and through its agencies, is likely to, and will 18 again engage, in the acts complained of herein.

19 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff and class members request relief
20 as prayed for below.

21
22 RELIEF

23 Plaintiff requests the following relief:

24 Pendente Lite

25 1. An order directing Defendants to disclose the 26 identities of unnamed and unknown Defendants and co-conspirators, 27 under an appropriate protective order;

28 2. An order directing Defendants, and their agents, 29 to take no steps to open or maintain any file or dossier on any 30 class member, on Plaintiff, or on counsel for Plaintiff;

31 3. An order directing Defendants to identify the class 32 members;

1 4. A preliminary injunction prohibiting the acts her 2 complained of.

4 At the Conclusion of the Case

5 1. Judgment declaring that Defendants have violated 6 the rights of Plaintiff and her class and enjoining all similar 7 acts in the future, and ordering the destruction of all informa-8 tion, files, data banks, and other material unlawfully compiled
9 as a result of the acts complained of herein;

10 2. Judgment awarding Plaintiff and each class member 11 compensatory and exemplary damages according to proof for each 12 violation or rights that has occurred, as charged in COUNT ONE 13 and COUNT TWO, above, and in an amount of $5.00 for each instance 14 when the exterior of envelopes, was examined without authority 15 as alleged in COUNT THREE above;

16 3. Judgment awarding costs of suit;

17 4. Judgment awarding Plaintiff's counsel a reasonable 18 attorney's fee;

19 5. Judgment granting a permanent injunction against 20 the acts herein complained of;

21 6. Other relief that the court considers proper.

22
23 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

24 Plaintiff demands a jury trial.

NO. C-75-1211 CBR

PROPOSED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff, pursuant to Court order, outlines below the preliminary discovery she suggests is necessary in order to fully reveal the contours of the case and controversy at issue, as well as the proper venue. Plaintiff believes that such preliminary discovery can be accomplished through interrogatories and requests for production of documents or records for inspection and copying. The proposed discovery is hereafter set forth briefly:

1 file. If not, provide details as to whether or not there were 2 specific instructions, oral or written, to not record any such 3 information at any time during the existence of the intercept 4 program.

5 5. What computerized programs exist reflecting names
6 compiled from the mail intercept program? Allow Plaintiff 7 access to that program or programs to determine whether or not 8 they contain the names Stephanie Kipperman, Stephanie Probst, 9 or the following alternative spellings of Plaintiff's first 10 name:

- 11 a. Stefany
- 12 b. Stefanie
- 13 c. Stephany

14 6. Other than the HTLINGUAL program, what other files
15 or records, in the possession of the CIA or other Government 16 agencies contain the names of persons compiled from the mail 17 intercept program? Permit Plaintiff to have access to such 18 files, if any, to determine whether or not her name, in the 19 spellings listed above, is contained in any of those files.

20 7. Permit Plaintiff to search the HTLINGUAL file 21 for the name of Plaintiff, in its various spellings set out 22 above.

23 8. Provide physical details of the routing of mail 24 to be examined in the intercept program, including any way in 25 which such routing differed from the normal flow of such mail.

26 9. Provide an estimate of the time delay in delivery 27 of intercepted mail contrasted to non-intercepted mail to and 28 from similar geographical locations.

29 10. Identify by name and job titles those persons, 30 including employees of the United States Postal Service or 31 United States Post Office Department, who examined mail pursuant 32 to the mail intercept program.

1 11. Describe the fashion in which intercepted mail was 2 returned to the normal channels of mail delivery.

3 12. Provide the criteria which were utilized in 4 selecting envelopes for photographing, or opening. If such 5 criteria were reduced to writing, provide any written 6 instructions.

7 13. Was there any saturated intercept of mail sent from 8 or to specific geographical locations; specifically Los Angeles, 9 California, or San Francisco, California?

10 14. Provide any legal authority for the examination 11 of first class envelopes by persons not normally involved in 12 mail delivery, or the photographing of first class mail envelopes, 13 or for the opening of such mail.

14 15. Advise Plaintiff if she was ever on a "watchlist" 15 used to implement the intercept program. Would the fact that 16 Plaintiff had traveled to the Soviet Union make it probable that 17 she would be placed on such a "watchlist?"

18 16. Describe the scope of the overall mail intercept 19 plan; provide all instances in which this overall plan required 20 activities in the Northern District of California.

21 17. State whether or not mail to be preliminarily 22 channeled into intercept "checkpoints" was initially segregated 23 in any place in the Northern District of California.

24 18. Provide the names of postal department employees 25 involved in the mail intercept program who carried out acts 26 pursuant to that program in the Northern District of California.
27 Describe the manner of their involvement.

28 19. If the HTLINGUAL program was microfilm only, and 29 not computerized, describe the physical means by which such a 30 program was expanded to accomodate new information in alphabetical 31 order.

1 20. Provide details about any mail "lost" or 2 "misplaced" in the process of the mail intercept program. State 3 whether or not the addressors or addressees of such mail have 4 been fully identified, and whether or not Plaintiff's name, in 5 any of its various spellings described above, appears on such 6 mail. If information about such misplaced mail is not a matter 7 of record, provide information about the scope of such non-8 recorded misplaced mail.

9 21. Provide the exact location of all stations where 10 mail was surveilled, photographed, or opened, in connection with 11 the mail intercept program.
